Competitors agree to be bound by the World Sailing (WS) Racing Rules of Sailing (RRS) 2017/2020, by the Notice of Race and Sailing Instructions. Competitors shall take all responsibility for the nautical qualities of their crews. Competitors also agree to take any and all responsibility for damages whatsoever caused to themselves or their belongings, ashore and at sea, as participants in the regatta, relieving of any responsibility CRVI, FIV and members of the organization. Skippers accept full responsibility for the behavior of their crew, representatives and guests and are aware of the prescriptions contained in WS RRS Part 1 Fundamental Rule 4.

Entering a yacht in the series, each competitor agrees that CRVI, FIV and their representatives have no responsibility whatsoever for death and /or injury of crew members or any third party involved in the race and its organization, or for the loss or damage to any vessel or property whatsoever.

Skippers who resolve to race in the event must ensure that each crewmember has adequate personal insurance. Skippers racing in the event must ensure that each crewmember has adequate expertise for the match race, fleet races and for the various weather conditions that might occur.

Competitors grant the Organizing Committee, the Class Associations and the Sponsors the unrestricted right and permission to use the name and the image for any text, photograph or video footage of either themselves or the boat they are sailing, to be published or broadcast in any media whatsoever, including but not limited to press and TV advertisements or Internet. Each individual participating crewmember will be required to sign a declaration accepting this waiver of rights.
